About AGMC

The Albany Gay Men's Chorus (AGMC) was founded in 2008 by a group of local LGBTQ+ individuals who shared a dream of starting a gay men's choral group. Since then, the chorus has grown in size and acclaim, performing a variety of music genres at major concerts and community events. In 2017, the AGMC became a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, and frequently supports and partners with the greater capital region's local LGBTQ+ and LGBTQ-friendly organizations in addition to collaborating with other musical groups too. AGMC performs two concerts annually and donates a portion of proceeds to various charitable organizations.
